

SMWCon Fall 2022

October 26 to 28, 2022 – Breda, The Netherlands

Sponsoring SMWCon 2022

SMWCon is a conference covering a broad range of topics from knowledge creation and sharing, collaboration, crowd-sourcing, knowledge graphs and semantic web and open data applications.

Developers, consultants and users of Semantic MediaWiki (SMW) come together to learn about enterprise, government, research and special interest wikis to represent structured data, turning a wiki into a fully fledged knowledge base. The conference includes business, nonprofit, government and academia representatives.

SMWCon 2022 is the 19th Semantic MediaWiki conference. The conference is held twice a year, in spring in America (named „EMWCon) and in fall in Europe. The 2022 conference will be organized as a three-days hybrid event (online and live) from October 26 – 28, 2022.
